BIG BOOSTER MEETING FOR CAINE AND TO PREPARE FOR JULY FOURTH

Late today through the efforts of James C. Owens, president of the Chamber of Commerce and J. A. Long, secretary, Mayor E. J. Garrard and City Attorney D. J. Hall were secured to speak on benefits which Richmond will and has derived from the Chamber of Commerce.

Everything is in readiness for the big booster meeting that will be held in connection with the regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, at the Lincoln grammar school auditorium tonight. All citizens of Richmond are invited to this meeting.

Joseph E. Caine, the live wire secretary and managing director of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce and Commercial club will be here to address the people concerning chamber of commerce work, and several local speakers will give 10-minute talks on subjects that will be of interest to everyone. Mr. Caine has a reputation of being a very forceful and interesting speaker, and those who fail to hear him will miss a rare treat.

The Fourth of July celebration that is to be held here this year will be prominently discussed and every one will have an opportunity to make suggestions concerning this event. It is intended to make this a monster celebration, and new and novel features will be produced in the program.

It is earnestly requested that the people come out and fill the auditorium to hear Mr. Caine and the other speakers, for this will be a most interesting meeting.

Electors Must Have Names On Register Before Voting at Any Election

The electors of Richmond should have their names placed on the great register of the county NOW! There is not a moment to lose. Remember, you cannot sign an initiative or referendum petition, nor can you vote at the coming school election unless you are registered.

J. H. Wells, county clerk, informs the Record-Herald that all persons must have their names placed on the great register this year before they can exercise any rights of citizenship. His word is supreme in the matter and no matter what anybody may think to the contrary, all must abide by his decision, which is probably the correct one.

The Record-Herald understands that there are being circulated in Richmond petitions to the council calling for an election of a board of freeholders to draft a new charter. An elector signing this petition or anything of a similar nature must first be registered—and he or she must be on the 1916 register, not a register of any previous year.

It is to be hoped that the men and women of this city will recognize the importance of this matter and register at once. Don't put it off another day!

WAR CAUSES "BAGS" TO SOARE SKYWARD

MARTINEZ, March 3.—Contra Costa people who have occasion to purchase grain bags at present are complaining about the high prices asked, and even at that many grumbles are heard because only a limited number of bags can be secured. Those persons who contracted for bags months ago are the lucky ones. Calcutta bags are now selling at 13 1-2 and 14 cents each. This is not prompt delivery either.

Of course, there are instances where a man can get a small supply of bags, but the "big men" are having their troubles. It is believed that the price will still go up.

The rise in grain bags is attributed not to any shortage of the jute crop in India, but to the disrupting of the trans-pacific freight service by the withdrawal of the ships formerly making Hong Kong and San Francisco. San Francisco gets its grain bags from India via Hong Kong.

Before another season it is probable that the conditions will be remedied, but for this year the farmer must resign himself to paying the highest price in years for his bags, and with none too good an assurance that he will be able to secure all he needs. San Quentin bags are still quoted at 10 cents, that price holding until April 1.

CAUSE OF POOR SPELLING

When little Morris Elkin of Brooklyn, N. Y., was hauled up in the children's court for not learning to spell, he had a perfectly good excuse. He wasn't lazy or rebellious or anything of the sort. He was simly suffering from alexia, the experts decided.

That's sort of word-blindness. The victim can see the words, but his memories of them are vague and confused. When he tries to spell, he gets the letters all tangled up. And sometimes when he's asked to spell one work, he dodges the issue, and spells some other word that means about the same thing or has a similar sound.

It may not be wise to let this become generally known among school children. It provides too simple and obvious an excuse. Imagine the predicament of a teacher who, after rebuking a backward pupil for not mastering his spelling lesson, is blandly informed that the culprit can't help it—he's "got alexia."

Grown-ups, however, may derive honest satisfaction from this bit of scientific knowledge. There are quite a few of us—possibly several millions—who have trouble with our spelling. And we're not at all ignorant or careless. When we get a word wrong, it's just because we're suffering from a slight temporary attack of alexia. See?

Sometimes the reason a girl gives her heart and life into the keeping of one particular man out of the whole wide world is because he asked her.

FOR DESERTED HUSBANDS

Oakmont, a Pittsburg suburb, has a "Husband's Welfare Association." It is a new club, intended to provide solace and comfort for deserted husbands while their wives are "resting" at Palm Beach or when they have "gone to the country" for the summer.

The members seem perfectly sincere about it. They say they've simply "banded together for mutual protection." Their organization, however, is supposed to be sub rosa, and the list of officers is secret. There is no club house. The club is expected to meet at the home of the various members at such times as the mistresses of those homes are away resting or frivoling.

Judging from the enthusiasm with which husbands are applying for membership, it's a pretty safe bet that fewer Oakmont matrons will be impelled by their usual desire to go to the country next summer.

You may belive a girl who says that she never has been kissed but don't believe her if she pretends to be enthusiastically happy over it.

The President was within his rights in declining to send all correspondence relating to Mexico to the Senate.

There are politicians whose support would hamstring any Presidential boom.

Some men are kept bailing all their ilves because they can't stop the leaks in their managership.

An enthusiastic response greeted the formal opening of the baseball popularity contest today. Unusual interest is being manifested and the success of the affair is assured.

Two new candidates were entered this moring. They are Miss Florence Waddingham and Miss Dolly Kovec. Both are well known and popular, and their friends predict that they will be among the five successful candidates.

Entries will close at 10 o'clock tomorrow night, when it is expected that fifty young women will be entered. The first published standing of the contest will appear Saturday afternoon.

Work on the grandstand is progressing at a satisfactory rate. Committees are busy arranging for the celebration and dedication exercises to be held at the opening of the 1916 baseball season, March 19th.

The event will include a parade, music by the Richmond band and numerous other features. Votes were today placed in Niedecker's drug store on the west side and Lang's drug store on the east side.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC AGAIN TO RESCUE OF IMPERIAL

Once more the Southern Pacific has gone to the aid of the Imperial valley and stopped the threatening onrush of the waters of the Colorado river from flooding the valley.

Several weeks ago, during the heavy rains in the south, the high waters of the Colorado undermined the California development levee which protects the valley and the Inter-California railroad. The point at which the water encroached was a short distance below the border. Half a mile of the levee was eaten away and disappeared in the river. Only a precipitous fall in the Colorado prevented an immediate overflow. Had the latter occurred the waters might have reached the Salton sea and flooded the valley at a cost to the ranchers and others that can only be imagined. It was a time to act and act quickly—to repair the break in the levee at once, before the waters encroached further.

A conference of Southern Pacific officials was held. As a result, H. B. Titcomb, maintenance-of-way assistantant, was dispatched by Assistant Chief Engineer J. Q. Barlow to the scene with a big force of men. They labored day and night and in record time repaired the break by constructing another half-mile of levee behind the break, thus checking the flood waters. Then Titcomb wired back that the situation was under control.

In 1906 the Southern Pacific went to the aid of the government and the stricken people of the valley and prevented the Colorado from destroying the expensive Laguna dam built by the government and from rendering homeless the people of the Imperial. The company spent nearly two million dollars in halting the flood. Its claim for reimbursement has been before congress since 1906. It is still unpaid.

DEATH DEALING WAR DEVICES IN PLAY

The "Battle Cry of Peace" made its first appearance in Richmond at the Regent theater this afternoon. The need of preparedness, not for but against war, was greatly emphasized and made an impression in the mind of every thinking person present.

Modern devices of war were shown and the inadequacy of the defense of this country was revealed. Scales are shown which compare the armament of this country with others, such as England, France, Russia, etc., and it is shown how poorly we compare with the other powers.

The possibilities of a hostile army invading New York, and the amount of damage that could be wrought is vividly pictured and, though it is merely conjecture, the tremendous possibility of such an invasion is made apparent.

Peace contenders are severely flayed and a bit of humor is shown at a peace meeting before the invasion which eventually ends in a melee to which the police are summoned to restore peace.

The invading force is a purely imaginary people with nondescript uniforms. The leader and head of this force is named Emanon, which, when spelled backwards, is "no name."

There is a thrilling scene where a mother and two daughters are captured by the invaders. Though somewhat gruesome, the scene is well acted and the heroic sacrifice made by the mother impresses with realistic force the suffering of the women in times of war.

All those who witness this wonderful production, whether they favor preparedness or not, cannot but realize its need.

The Battle Cry of Peace is in Richmond for two days, Friday and Saturday. See program for time of performances. Special orchestra will furnish appropriate music.

DRINK WATER TO AVOID SICKNESS SAYS AUTHORITY

Glass of hot water before breakfast daily keeps the doctor away.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest aplication of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and lime stone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

WHY DON'T YOU GET SOME SPRING CLOTHES, TOO?

Other women are using their CREDIT. Why don't you? You surely haven't imagined that all the folks you've seen on the streets wearing smart spring costumes paid cash for them, have you?

Well, you've been deceiving yourself, if you though that. There probably aren't half a dozen women of your acquaintance who could afford to wear pretty spring apparel so early in the season if they were forced to pay cash.

But CHERRY'S WILL TRUST THEM, and will trust YOU, too. The new things in CHERRY'S lovely shop are without doubt the most attractive and classy in years. Of course, you know all about the Spring styles. Suits are short and full, belted, flaring, trimmed with buttons and very charming.

CHERRY'S have many striking Suits, as well as wide, beautiful varieties of one-piece Dresses, new Coats, Waists, etc. The advance arrivals in Corduroy Sport Clothes will delight you, too. And anything and everything you want will be sold to you for a fractional payment down and the rest by the week or month.

Go to CHERRY'S store at 515 13th street, between Washington and Clay streets, and see the grand array of Spring things. Of course you know CHERRY'S have another store in Oakland where they carry men's clothing exclusively. It's just across the street from the ladies' store and the number is 528 13th street. CHERRY'S also have two stores in San Francisco, one at 1009 Market street and the other at 2400 Mission street. These stores handle both ladies' and men's goods. Other stores—Portland, Los Angeles and Sacramento.—Advt.

AT RICHMOND THEATRE

One of the most thrilling and unusual fight scenes ever seen on the screen occurs in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Golden Chance," which will be seen at the Richmond theater tonight and tomorrow. In this scene Wallace Reid is attacked by two crooks and after a desperate struggle, subdues them. Raymond Hatton as one of the crooks, was thrown to the stage so violently his shoulder was dislocated.

The play also includes some of the most unusual photography ever exhibited in a moving picture and is a marvel from start to finish. In addition to this thrilling play, there will be shown a Pathe series of current events and a very delightful comedy entitled, "Great While It Lasts."

NOTES FROM THE PLAYHOUSES

PANTAGES THEATRE (Oakland)

The Oakland and Berkeley city directories and a part of the Alameda directory, won for Alex Pantages, vaudeville magnate, the biggest theatrical "scoop" ever scored in the west, and brought to his circuit "The Office Girls" one of the most successful variety acts New York vaudeville has ever seen. It cost him a day's time—and the telegraph offices had to send the directories over the wire until the act was "tied up."

Pantages had started negotiations by wire for the act when an assistant informed him that representatives of a rival circuit were on their way to the telegraph offices to wire another offer, bidding against him for the attraction.

Pantages thinks fast. Seizing the city directory, he handed it to the astounded operator, ordering him to keep sending names until his answer came. Then he hurried across the street to another office, grabbed their telephone directory and started that on the wire.

The other circuit could not reach New York. The wires were "full." They waited, swearing and grinding their teeth.

And while the names and addresses of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda citizens were flashed over the wires Pantages' New York office signed the act, which arrives in Oakland next week. The "Office Girls" is a sensational musical comedy, and one of the most expensive acts on thePacific coast today. It will run all week at the Oakland Pantages.

ORPHEUM THEATRE (Oakland)

Gertrude Hoffmann comes next Sunday in "Sumurun" with 60 artists—the event of all dramatic events.

Always striving for bigger and better vaudeville, the Orpheum has the supreme sensation of the music hall world—Gertrude Hollmann in her own magnificent production of Max Reinhardt's "Sumurun," a mimi-drama or wordless play of life and love in the Orient.

This is the most ambitious offering in the history of vaudeville. No one but Miss Hoffman, whom E. F. Albee calls "the greatest show-woman in the world," would have attempted such a tremendous act.

It employes no less than sixty people and an orchestra of 30 musicians under the direction of Max Hoffman.

The big cast is made up of celebrated players.

The production has been staged for Miss Hoffman by Richard Ordynski, the pupil and apostle of Max Reinhardt, who first came to this country with Reinhardt's own company from the Deutsches theater, Berlin, for the original American run of the piece at the Casino theater under the direction of Winthrop Ames.

Miss Hoffmann appears as the "Beautiful Slave of Fatal Enchantment," while Ordynski will be the vengeful Hunchback of the theater booth. The production is royally magnificent.

A broad runway, "The Flowery Path," has been built from foyer to stage of the Orpheum, and over this the players come and go.

"Sumurun" tells a dramatic story of love and jealousy, revenge and death, with most eloquent silence. Here and there it has the salt of the grotesque. It presents harmonies of color that are now suave and tender and now all ablaze and dazzling—the quiet lines of an old Persian rug, and the glitter of fiery gems; it has purity of outline and grace of movement.

It is not enough to say that "Sumurun" gives pleasure; it casts a spell from the movement that a young man in turban and flowing robes strides over the "Flowery Path" and sitting cross-legged before the curtain tells you that he is Nur-al-Din, the cloth merchant in love with "Sumurun," the favorite of the Sheik.

The music by Victor Hollaender which accompanies the action of "Sumurun" throughout voices the life, color, passion and comedy of the shifting moods, giving and interpretative touch beyond reach of words.

The effect is that of a vivid reality seen through a romantic dream.

Both Lillian Fitzgerald and Henry I. Marshall are known to vaudeville, but this is their first appearance together in the two-a-day. Miss Fitzgerald whose principal qualification is to make grins grow where only grouches have been before, and Mr. Marshall is a composer of many of the most popular songs that are sung or played wherever there is any sort of instrument. Among his compositions are "On the 5:15," "I want to Linger," "The 7:28," Mary You're a Little Bit Old Fashioned," "No One But Your Dear Old Dad," "Loading Up the Mandy Lee," etc., etc.

Sam Barton uses a bicycle for a "prop" only. What is more important, however, is the fact that he keeps his audience in a continual roar of laughter during the entire time before them. Barton is a pantomimist, and in his tramp make-up, is a comedian worthy of the name.

Betty Donn a beautiful singer, who has just returned from a very successful tour of Australia will be a pleasing feature of the program.

"A Bit of Blarney" is the alluring title of Dan P. Casey's offering. Mr. Casey is Irish as might be suspected and his songs and stories will have an Irish flavor to them.

Nance O'Neil always a great favorite and a tragedienne of international fame will be the star player in the Fox screen drama entitled "The Witch." The picture is an hour in length. It is founded upon Sardoni's famous play "The Sorceress."

The management announces that owing to the extreme length of the program the show will start promptly at 2 o'clock each matinee and 8 o'clock each night.

MUNYON TALKS ON GRIPPE

Treatment Positively Breaks Up the Most Severe Forms of This Disease, Frequently in a Few Hours' Time.

"If I were asked as to which of my remedies I consider the most valuable as a cure of grippe, I would unhesitatingly say: A combination of Grippe Remedy, Smo-Ko Cigarettes and Paw Paw Pills. I regard a cold as the most dangerous of all ailments. It leads to grippe, catarrh, neuralgia, sore throat, pneumonia and consumption. Smo-Ko Tobaccoless Cigarettes will cure colds and stop discharges of the nose and eyes in a few minutes. Smo-Ko will instantly kill any nose or throat germs, and soothe the inflamed parts. One Cigarette often smokes the disease out of the head and throat. Where the bones ache and there is a fever and you have chills or pains in the back, secure at once a bottle of Munyon's Grippe Remedy and take the pellets every fifteen minutes. These pellets will allay inflammation, reduce fever and take away Grippe pains and aches. I strongly advise in connection with these two remedies, that people keep their liver active and their bowels open by taking a Paw Paw Laxative Pill at night. These pills aid digestion and strengthen the general system. This treatment, consisting of a bottle of MUNYON'S GRIPPE REMEDY, a bottle of MUNYON'S PAW PAW PILLS and a box of SMO-KO CIGARETTES will cost you only 90c and the combination will prove of untold benefit to you. They are sold in nearly every drug store, or you can secure them by mail by addressing the Munyon Remedy Co., 13th and Market Streets, Philadelphia.

"The present epidemic proves that the old-fashioned remedies do not cure; therefore, why not try the new?"
—MUNYON.
